Step 3. Open GUI
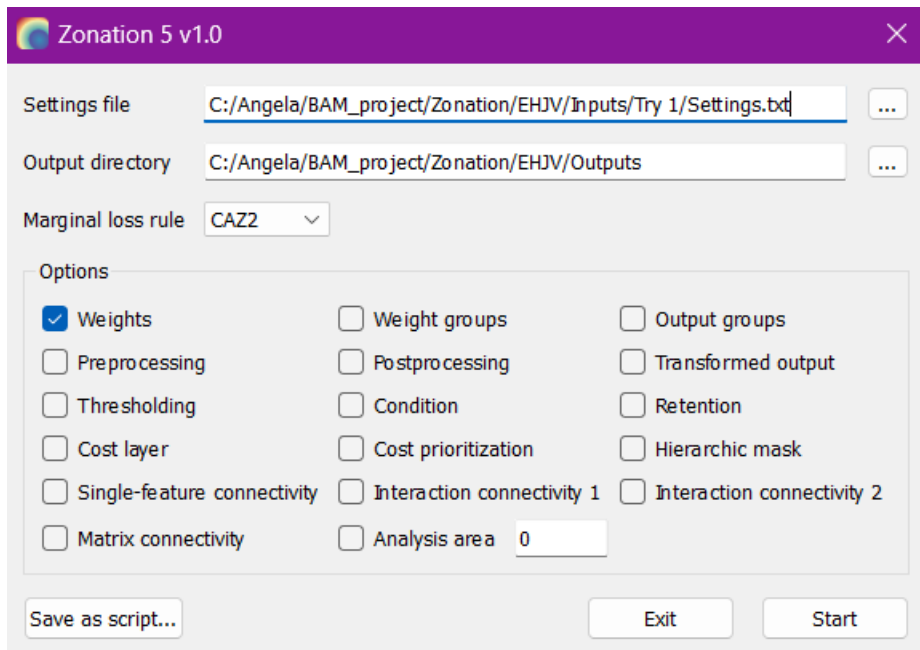

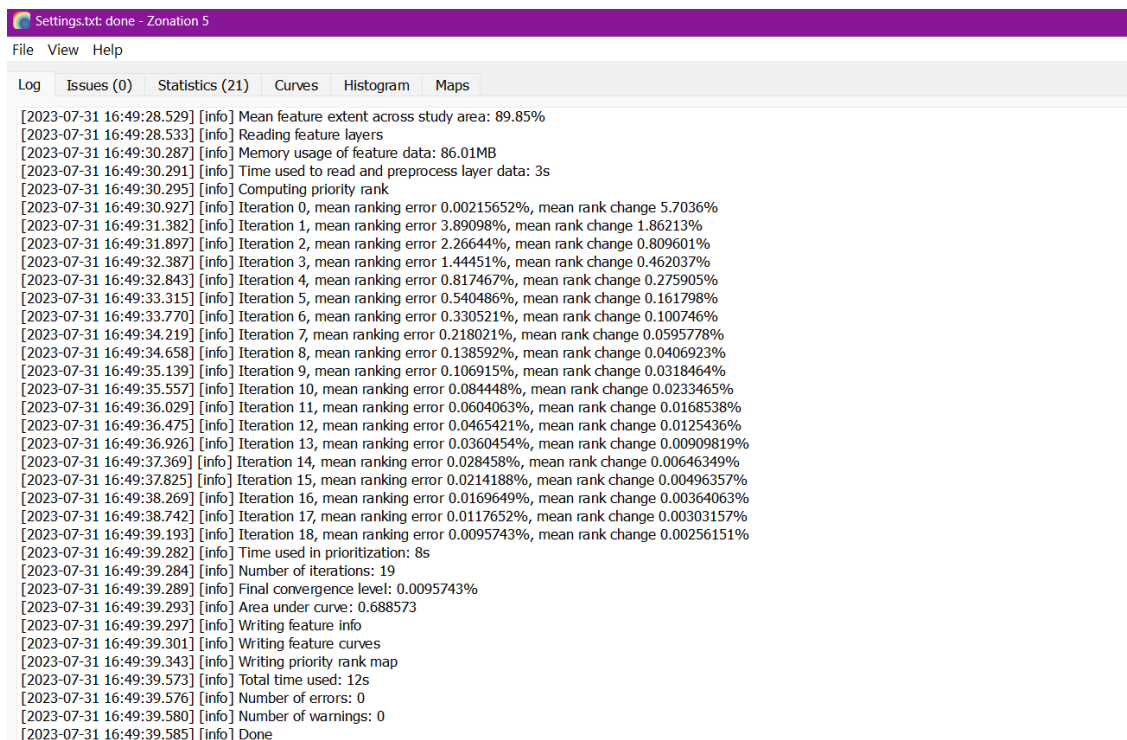

Select the setting text file and the output directory, as well as the marginal loss rule and the options.

Press start. If both the Setting and Features file are correctly created, Zonation will run the prioritization without displaying any issue as show below.

Click in maps to display your map.